Call for Price

Description:

Luxury country house Son Coll This impressive country house is built on more than 265.000 m<sup>2</sup> of land and is located close to the traditional village of Artà. A large traditional stone finca and four neighbouring buildings make life a purely pleasurable experience on all levels. The main house is outstanding for its impressive entrance hall, decorated with exotic pieces of furniture originating from Morocco, India and other corners of the world. The reception area leads to a sumptuous living room of around 200m<sup>2</sup>. In the nearby multi-media TV & music room, the decoration is of Moroccan style and is predominantly of colourful mosaics. A fantastic modern kitchen, made from high quality wood and metals, and a guest cloakroom complete the ground floor of the main building. The upper floor consists of three bedrooms with bathrooms en suite, a dressing room, an office plus a Turkish themed bathroom. Close to the main house, hidden away amidst lush vegetation, there is a second stone clad country house. This building meets the highest quality and finest living expectations. 2 spacious living rooms,
