Rent Price: € 3.500

Description:

Nestling at the foot of the Sierra de Tramuntana mountains and surrounded by orchards containing apple, apricot, orange, lemon, almond and plum trees, to mention only a few, this beautifully restored finca offers the weary traveller a haven of rest and relaxation. The main farmhouse itself has four very large bedrooms / guest suites, all with air-conditioning and ensuite facilities, whilst the annex has a further two airy bedrooms, also with ensuite facilities and prepared for air-conditioning. All guest rooms have their own access to allow complete privacy, if required. It should be noted that there is also a separate apartment with its own two bedrooms, which could be used by the owner, any staff members or rented out to a family or for long term purposes. On entering the finca, you find yourself in a cosy lounge and dining room with open fire. To the rear of this space is the library, also with an open fire and with storage off to one side. There is access to the rear terrace through the library and washrooms off this terrace. On the other side of the finca is the breakfast room, also used for private parties and a
